This is not a tourist area but is visited by pilgrims on the last stage of the St James' walk. The village serves all day-to-day needs with 2 good supermarkets, bakeries, several restaurants, a fish market.

The village is not seasonal but is open all year round. As fishing is the main commercial activity, there is a working fishing port.

Nearest airports are Santiago de Compostela (Ryanair from Stansted) or La Coruna (Iberia or Clickair from Heathrow) both approx. 100 km from flat.

Prices for 2008 (apartment per week)

July / September	378 euros
August	420 euros
Rest of the year	330 euros

Please note that bed linen and towels are not included and we are unable to provide a cleaning service.
